

TAAHP Advisor Travel Award Application 2018

I. Award information:

About TAAHP: The Texas Association of Advisors for the Health Professions (TAAHP) is an organization that connects Texas health professions advisors to each other and to the professional schools that our students seek to enter. At the annual TAAHP conference, advisors and schools learn from each other to improve the training of Texas undergraduates to enter health professions schools.

Purpose of the travel award: The purpose of the TAAHP Travel Award is to increase the number of advisor participating in the state-wide conference.

Award details: Advisors who receive a travel award will receive a $200 reimbursement check to offset the cost of conference registration. Please note: Awardees should still register for the conference. Be aware that this award does not cover hotel or transportation costs.

Eligibility: Travel awards are available to TAAHP members who:

- are in good standing (i.e. membership dues paid for the year that this travel award is issued).
- are professional or faculty advisors at a 2- or 4-year undergraduate college or university.

Application due date: January 16, 2018
